Itinerary

Unlike heavily impacted Napa and Sonoma, the Paso Robles wine country has plenty of small, friendly wineries featuring award winning red wines as well as many relatively level roads with light traffic. Our half day wine country bicycle tour begins east of Paso Robles and winds along scenic roads on it's way to a peaceful road next to the Salinas River, where the understated elegance of Hearst Ranch Winery beckons. A short climb away from the river brings you into the heart of Paso Robles wine country, where you have chances to taste at other wineries, such as the colorful and irreverent Via Vega Vineyard, while enjoying expansive views of the surrounding vineyards. The tour finishes with a complimentary wine tasting and gourmet picnic lunch (or Italian bistro menu featuring pizza on the weekend) at Le Vigne Winery tasting room. This bicycle tour provides a great half day of wine tasting and cycling along mostly level roads and is our easiest wine country bike tour.

Distance/Difficulty/Terrain: 15 miles with an option to add 5 miles. Moderately Easy. Mostly level with a few short hills on the 15 mile route (elevation gain/loss = 494 feet). Hillier on longer route.

Climate / Weather

Spring and fall weather in the Paso Robles area is usually warm and dry, with highs often in the 70s and 80s. Summer temperatures can be quite hot, especially in the afternoons, with some days above 100 degrees. Winter temperatures are usually colder with chances of frost in the morning and some days having highs only near 50 degrees. There is also a greater chance of rain in the winter. Year round, morning temperatures are usually significantly cooler than afternoon high temperatures.
