

BIKING: Monterey to San Luis Obispo (SLO) – 3 Day Itinerary (155 Total Miles / Daily Average = 52 miles / Daily Range = 39-71 miles)

Day One – Monterey to Big Sur – 45 miles (elevation +2748 / -2530 ft)

Today's ride begins with a side trip out to scenic 17 Mile Drive to experience the storied golf courses of Pebble Beach. You'll continue through Carmel, enjoying its white sandy beach and beautiful mission. South of Carmel, you'll enter the fabled Big Sur coastline, home to some of the most spectacular coastal scenery anywhere in the world. Here Highway One is often carved out of cliffs and ridges high above the Pacific Ocean with waves crashing below on rocky sea stacks. After crossing photogenic Bixby Bridge and climbing to Hurricane Point, the ride finishes a short distance inland among the redwoods in the town of Big Sur.

Day Two – Big Sur to Cambria – 71 miles (elevation +5832 / -6039 ft)

The rest of the epic Big Sur coast dominates the first 50 miles of the ride today. Right off the bat you'll tackle the biggest hill of the tour as you climb above the Big Sur River past colorful cafes before descending back toward the ocean. Short hikes to redwood canyons and waterfalls as well as panoramic views from scenic vistas line this stretch of the route. After the hills leading up to Ragged Point the terrain levels out as we ride through idyllic ranchland past an elephant seal colony and Hearst Castle before getting a well earned night's rest in the seaside village of Cambria.

Day Three – Cambria to San Luis Obispo (SLO) – 39 miles (elevation +1456 / -1273 ft)

South of Cambria you'll veer inland for short while before returning to the coast just north of Cayucos, a classic beach town with a pier, a huge sandy beach and surfers plying the waves just offshore. Our route hugs the coast from Cayucos south to Morro Bay, which is a fishing village with a scenic harbor area. From Morro Bay to SLO you'll skirt the edge of wildlife rich Morro Bay National Estuary before cutting inland for some hilly but very scenic cycling. SLO (voted happiest town in North America!) features an historic mission and a vibrant walkable downtown area.
