

BIKING: Monterey to San Luis Obispo (SLO) – 6 Day Itinerary (155 Total Miles / Daily Average = 26 miles / Daily Range = 19-39 miles)

Day One – Monterey to Carmel – 19 miles (elevation +822 / -796 ft)

Today's ride begins along a bike path along the historic Monterey waterfront, home to Cannery Row and the Monterey Bay Aquarium. Passing through Pacific Grove, you'll cycle 17 Mile Drive and experience the storied golf courses of Pebble Beach. Home for the evening is Carmel, with its numerous restaurants and shopping options as well as white sandy beaches and a beautiful mission.

Day Two – Carmel to Big Sur – 26 miles (elevation +2112 / -1917 ft)

South of Carmel, you'll enter the fabled Big Sur coastline, home to some of the most spectacular coastal scenery anywhere in the world. Here Highway One is often carved out of cliffs and ridges high above the Pacific Ocean with waves crashing below on rocky sea stacks. After crossing photogenic Bixby Bridge and climbing to Hurricane Point, the ride finishes a short distance inland among the redwoods in the town of Big Sur.

Day Three – Big Sur to Lucia – 24 miles (elevation +2563 / -2446 ft)

Get ready for a full day of the epic Big Sur coast! Right off the bat you'll tackle the biggest hill of the tour as you climb above the Big Sur River past colorful cafes and more redwoods before descending back toward the ocean. Rugged and remote coastline dominates the rest of the day, with state parks offering short hikes to waterfalls and panoramic views of the Pacific.

Day Four – Lucia to Ragged Point – 25 miles (elevation +2665 / -2693 ft)

Rugged and remote coastline continues to be the theme of the ride today. There are more opportunities to hike into the redwoods, to waterfalls and to panoramic views of the Pacific. After cycling a final set of hills, you'll enjoy a well earned rest at the Ragged Point Inn, perched on a bluff high above ocean.

Day Five – Ragged Point to Cambria – 22 miles (elevation +937 / -1202 ft)

After descending from Ragged Point the coastal route in northern SLO County features more forgiving terrain, but still encompasses expansive ocean views as you pass by historic Hearst Ranch and Hearst Castle. Just south of Piedras Blancas lighthouse, the largest elephant seal colony in North America is a must-see stop. Home for the evening is the charming seaside village of Cambria, featuring numerous art galleries and restaurants.

Day Six – Cambria to San Luis Obispo (SLO) – 39 miles (elevation +1456 / -1273 ft)

South of Cambria you'll veer inland for short while before returning to the coast just north of Cayucos, a classic beach town with a pier, a huge sandy beach and surfers plying the waves just offshore. Our route hugs the coast from Cayucos south to Morro Bay, which is a fishing village with a scenic harbor area. From Morro Bay to SLO you'll skirt the edge of wildlife rich Morro Bay National Estuary before cutting inland for some hilly but very scenic cycling. SLO (voted happiest town in North America!) features an historic mission and a vibrant walkable downtown area.
