

BIKING: San Luis Obispo (SLO) to Santa Barbara – 3 Day Itinerary

(133 Total Miles / Daily Average = 44 miles / Daily Range = 38-52 miles)

Day One – SLO to Santa Maria – 43 miles (elevation +1101 / -1131 ft)

You'll start your tour in the historic mission town of San Luis Obispo (voted happiest town in North America!) before heading toward the coast and the classic beach and surfing town of Pismo Beach. From Pismo Beach the route veers inland through rich farmland. The mild climate and deep soils here mean a wide variety of crops will thrive. Watch for artichokes and strawberries! The terrain from Pismo beach starts out with some rolling hills, but levels out as you pass through the sleepy town of Guadalupe before a short spin to Santa Maria.

Day Two – Santa Maria to Solvang – 38 miles (elevation +1931 / -1662 ft)

From Santa Maria, you'll quickly find yourself in the idyllic vineyards of the Santa Ynez winery region. This is where the movie "Sideways" was filmed, often with actual staff from the winery tasting rooms. Tackling the hills at the south end of Foxen Canyon Road brings you to the tiny hamlet of Los Olivos and its numerous tasting rooms. From Los Olivos it's a short spin along Alamo Pintado Road (or a rollicking climb and descent on Ballard Canyon Road) to the Danish-themed town of Solvang in the heart of the Santa Ynez wine country.

Day Three – Solvang to Santa Barbara – 52 miles (elevation +2472 / -2965 ft)

A pleasing spin and climb through isolated country behind Solvang starts the day before you gain US 101 and climb over Gaviota Pass to get back to the coast. The coastal approach to Santa Barbara on US 101 is actually quite pleasant for cycling on a freeway and features expansive ocean views. As you near Santa Barbara, you'll take the traditional Coast Bike Route through Hope Ranch and bike along the waterfront before ending the day among the palm trees and sandy beaches of Santa Barbara.
